What happens next?

You will receive an acknowledgment either in writing or by e-mail within 5 working days of receipt, which will identify the person who will be handling the complaint for the business, together with a copy of this complaints procedure.

Within 8 weeks, after receipt of a complaint, we will send to you either:

- (a) A final response, which will inform you that you can complain to the Legal Ombudsman, the timeframe for doing so and full contact details for the Legal Ombudsman; or
- (b) A response which:
 - i. Explains that we are still not in a position to make a final response, giving reasons for the further delay and indicating when we are expected to provide a final response; and
 - ii. Will inform you in writing that you can pass the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman if you remain dissatisfied with our response, the timeframe for doing so and full contact details for the Legal Ombudsman.

Where we decide that redress is appropriate, we will provide you with fair compensation for any acts or omissions for which we are responsible and will comply with any offer of redress which you accept. Appropriate redress will not always involve financial redress.
